INSTRUCTIONS

- (a) A marriage licence is required for every marriage, and is effective on the day application is made.
- (b) Both parties to the marriage may be required to present satisfactory evidence of identification (i. e. birth certificate, citizenship papers).
- (c) Where the death of a former spouse is only presumed, a Court Order of Presumption of Death MUST be furnished before the issuance of a marriage licence.

USE OF SURNAMES ON MARRIAGE A spouse by marriage may:

- (a) use the surname they had immediately before the marriage;
- (b) use the surname they had at birth or by adoption; or
- (c) use the surname of their spouse by marriage.

DEGREES OF CONSANGUINITY WHICH BAR THE LAWFUL SOLEMNIZATION OF MARRIAGE

A party to a marriage may not marry his or her:

- Grandmother/Grandfather
- Mother/Father
- Granddaughter/Grandson
- Daughter/Son
- Sister/Brother

The relationships set forth in this table include all such relationships, whether by the whole or half blood or by order of adoption.
